

NEWS... From your school librarian!

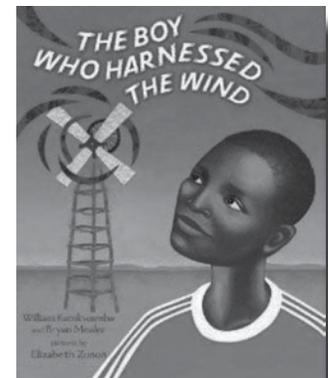

Are you interested in teaching your students money concepts? I have three new books in our school library and off-the-shelf age-appropriate lesson plans for you to use. It's part of Reading is an Investment--a statewide financial literacy program for elementary school students!

Featured Books:

This year's lesson theme is: CHOICES HAVE COSTS & BENEFITS

- 128 Vermont Elementary Schools Participating This Year!
- Our students could win one of twenty $250 college savings plan accounts from VSAC
- We could be a part of an April State House ceremony honoring Reading is an Investment winners
- All lessons plans, including previous year's materials, are now available for free online from the Vermont State Treasurer's Office
